DETAILED ACTION

Drawings

1. The drawings are objected to under 37 CFR 1.83(a). The drawings must show every feature of the invention specified in the claims. Therefore, the belt mount operable to allow a user to secure the controller to the user's belt (claims 11, 18) must be shown or the feature(s) canceled from the claim(s). No new matter should be entered.

Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. The figure or figure number of an amended drawing should not be labeled as "amended." If a drawing figure is to be canceled, the appropriate figure must be removed from the replacement sheet, and where necessary, the remaining figures must be renumbered and appropriate changes made to the brief description of the several views of the drawings for consistency. Additional replacement sheets may be necessary to show the renumbering of the remaining figures. The replacement sheet(s) should be labeled "Replacement Sheet" in the page header (as per 37 CFR 1.84(c)) so as not to obstruct any portion of the drawing figures. If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

2. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

3. Claim 7 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

In regard to claim 7, the term “the control” lacks positive antecedent basis since “at least one control” was set forth in claim 6.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

4. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

5. Claims 1, 3, 4, 6, 12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being clearly anticipated by Bryan 4,700,501.

Bryan discloses a rotating assembly (30, 50, 51); a housing (1, 13, 16, 17); a rod mount (72, 73); at least one control (21, 25).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

6. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

7. Claim 2 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Bryan 4,700,501.

Bryan discloses the clip capable of being received on the rod shaft, but does not disclose the internal diameter being less than one half inch. It would have been an obvious matter of design choice to size the internal diameter of the clip such that it is less than one half inch in order for the clip to be able to fit on rods at or below this size.

8. Claims 5, 7, 8-10, 13-17 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Bryan 4,700,501 in view of Evans 4,660,317.

Bryan does a power input or at least one control located remotely to the housing. Evans discloses a power input (44) and at least one control (47) located remotely to a housing (16). It would have been obvious to a person of ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention to modify the device of Bryan such that its power input and at least one control are located remotely to the housing in view of Evans in order to run the device off of an external power source such as a boat's battery and to allow the user to operate the jigging device at a distance from the rod.

Art Unit: 3643

9. Claim 16 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Bryan 4,700,501 in view of Evans 4,660,317 as applied to claim 13 above, and further in view of Nicholas 5,201,884.

Alternatively, Bryan and Evans do not disclose the controller operable to contain a power source. Nicholas discloses a controller (3) operable to contain a power source (battery 45). It would have been obvious to a person of ordinary skill in the art to modify the device of Bryan and Evans such that the controller is operable to contain a power source in view of Nicholas in order to allow the user to have access to the power source during operation of the device at a location where the device is to be controlled.

Allowable Subject Matter

10. Claim 11 is objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

11. Claims 18-20 are allowed.

Conclusion

12. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Nyquist 6,634,134 discloses controls for a jiggling device (see Figs14-25G).
